

Post-SPP-Meeting

New Frameworks of Rationality

24.- 25.07. 2025

MPI für Bildungsforschung Berlin

NEW • FRAMEWORKS • OF

RATIONALITY

DFG • SCHWERPUNKTPROGRAMM • 1516

Program

Thursday - 24.07.2025
14:00–14:30	Arrival / Café
14:30–14:45	Welcome
14:45–15:30	Markus Knauff (JLU Gießen): Confessions
15:30–15:45	Café
15:45–16:15	Wolfgang Spohn (Uni Konstanz): The complicated relation of the descriptive and the normative, what rationality has to do with it, and why psychology can't be a purely empirical science
16:15–16:45	Marco Ragni (TU Chemnitz): Von der Logik zur Person: Kognitive Modelle zwischen Normativität und Vorhersagekraft
16:45–17:15	Discussion
17:15–17:30	Café
17:30–18:00	Stephan Hartmann (LMU München): Belief as Testimony to Oneself
18:00–18:30	Ralph Hertwig (MPI Berlin): The untold story: How experimental methods shaped views on human competence and rationality
18:30–19:00	Discussion
20:00	Dinner at MPI

Friday – 25.07.2025
9:00–9:30	Hans Rott (Uni Regensburg): Support conditionals: philosophical, logical, linguistic and psychological aspects
9:30–10:00	Lara Abel (Univ. of Cambridge): Research on Research Culture at the University of Cambridge
10:00–10:30	Gregory Wheeler (Frankfurt): Beyond Expectations: Function-Coherent Gambles and Non-Linear Utility”
10:30–11:00	Discussion
11:00–11:15	Café
11:15–11:45	Antonia Stummvoll (Uni Bayreuth): Eine sprachgenerierende KI als RichterIn? Juristische Wertung, Gleichheitsrechte und richterliche Entscheidungsfreiheit aus Sicht des Grundgesetzes
11:45–12:15	Gerhard Schurz (HHU Düsseldorf): Meta-Induction: Recent Findings and Controversies
12:15–12:45	Tomasz Wysocki, Louisa Reins & Michael R.Waldmann (Univ. Göttingen): The Relevance Theory of Dispositions
12:45–13:15	Discussion
13:15–16:00	Lunch and Meetings
16:00–16:30	Niels Skovgaard-Olsen (Uni Freiburg): Causal Markov Violations and Hidden Mechanisms
16:30–17:00	Klaus Fiedler (Uni Heidelberg): On scientists' obligation to support emancipation rather than conformism
17:00–17:30	Discussion
20:00	Dinner in Biergarten “Alter Krug“